Our New Brand will launch for September

Watch for more details next month!

Questor Financial Corp

Watch for news about our exciting new brand- Questor Financial Corp.

Why Questor? Questors were elected officials of the Roman Republic who supervised the treasury and financial affairs of the state.

The Questor Financial brand is an inevitable path born out of the Commitment & Expertise of one of the most solid and experienced groups of lease finance professionals in Canada.

Questor Financial takes its place as the flagship entity in the Questor Group of Companies, continuing to serve equipment vendors and direct customers in all areas of equipment finance.

The mission for Questor Financial is to continue as a one-stop financing solutions partner.

We will unveil our new logo, brand tools, and website for next month's edition!

Going Green

Email is a more efficient way to stay in touch.

Environmental considerations are not just in vogue; it is absolutely necessary to optimize our children's future.

Proficom has always been at the forefront to use technology to save resources.

Our efforts continue.

We generate thousands of letters weekly to notify clients of their end of term options on their leases.

This is a service we are very pleased to provide and is a real plus with our customers.

When possible we would request to have up to date and multiple email contacts on file for your company, so that we can meet your needs via email and reduce the multiple letters we send.

To keep your contact info up to date simply hit "reply" and let us know who we should be in contact with for various functions, and their email addresses.

We will continue to strive to achieve the highest levels of customer service while reducing the extra wasted paper notifications.
