Volume 08-09-01 Q'S News - Outstanding Approvals ?

Dear Debra,

Key equipment lenders have had well publicized challenges over the past few weeks. This has required a suspense of funding for new transactions for many of their customers.

While we wish for our lending partners, and friends, to work out a positive resolution, we acknowledge this may cause disruption with outstanding approvals in the marketplace.

Questor will review outstanding approvals and we look to meet the same approval conditions to ensure the transaction is funded promptly and not become a receivable liability for vendors.

We understand the urgency of the situation and potential jeopardy of your equipment sales, so if I can assist in anyway, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.
