Your Customized Web Quoting Link

We have developed a unique customized instant quoting tool driven off of your own web site, we call it Q Link

This Q Link technology will increase your quoting activity, increase your total volume and increase your average sale.

Power Tools

The Solution

Reinforce Your Web Site, Your Brand.

Quite simply, we built Q Link so you don't have to, and for two very powerful reasons:

- 1) Every company wants their clients to visit their site and be wowed by a dynamic professional experience, but very few companies have the resources to have their own branded leasing solution direct from their own site.
- 2) We know that the old way of equipment sales meant loose informal leasing options where the client actually had to ask for a quote or was referred elsewhere, which ultimately drove your customers away.

In short, by not controlling the leasing solution, you do not control the sale which is nothing more than two integral questions: what to buy and how to pay for it?
